“CONVERSATIONS WITH POWER”

A collection of incisive and illuminating interviews with former world leaders on the lessons they've learned about leadership, power, and the global challenges of the twenty-first century.

– Palgrave Macmillan, April 2011

With a stunning list of interviewees including Bill Clinton, Jimmy Carter, Mikhail Gorbachev, Ehud Barak, F.W. de Klerk, Gro Brundtland, John Major, Helmut Schmidt, Vaclav Havel, Pervez Musharraf, Ricardo Lagos, Paul Keating, Fernando Henrique Cardoso, Goh Chok Tong, Martti Ahtisaari, these conversations provide an illuminating, entertaining and uplifting reminder of what is possible when leaders inspire and the public is engaged.

“This is a collection full of voices that have not been heard enough in America, and the world. Brian Till has spent quality time with some of the most innovative and significant officials of the past decades and their experiences and insights are a delight to read, as well as provide an important series of history lessons.” – Seymour M. Hersh
